We also have our Society of the Black Rose. The black rose was named in honor of the greatest widow in the Confederacy, Rose O'Neal Greenhow, who risked her own personal safety for the Confederate Cause and lost her life trying to help The Cause. The Society Of The Black Rose is a volunteer order to perpetuate the persona of a War Between The States widow at SCV functions, memorial services, grave dedications, etc. You must be a member of the OCR to join the Society of the Black Rose.
